Erie, President Cleveland's county in New York, gave 2,500 majority for Davenport, or about 900 more than the usual Republican majority.

Mr. George W. Cassidy is a candidate for Senator from Nevada. It is intended that Mr. Fair shall not be the only Richmond in the Democratic field.

Jas. G. Blaine says that "there is no gratitude in politics. Politics means only ambition and success." Mr. Blaine has the ambition, and is looking to 1888 for the success.

Ex-Attorney General Williams and ex-Senator Mitchell are the most prominent candidates in the Oregon Senatorial fight. It is claimed that they are actual residents of the State.

It is said that Colonel Ellis and other prominent Democrats will make it interesting for Senator Fair next year. How pleasant it must be for brethren to dwell together in unity. Let us have peace.

United States Senator Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, is not disposed to make factious opposition to the nominations of President Cleveland, but he thinks there have been too many removals from office.

Charley Crocker has done a generous deed by giving $31,000 to defray the cost of constructing the new building for the San Francisco Boys' and Girls' Aid Society. The good men do lives after them.

The New York Chinese merchants' address to the President reminds the Herald that "under Republican Administrations their treaty rights have been unprotected, and that in Cleveland the Chinese have found the first defender of their guaranteed privileges in America. No wonder they are grateful." The President will need to be saved from his Celestial friends.

The New York Board of Trade and Transportation recently sent out 50,000 circulars to merchants throughout the United States asking the prevailing opinion in various localities as to the advisability of continuing the compulsory coinage of silver dollars. A large number of replies are published in an evening paper from representative business men throughout the country. The majority of those published condemn further coinage.

Nevada might do well by annexing southern Idaho, but it is not particularly anxious about it. The total cost of maintaining our State Government is only a quarter of a million dollars annually. Our real and personal roll is $28,000,000. The State rate of taxation is only 90 cents. The people are only taxed on about one-third of their property, and although the rate is 90 cents the taxpayers are not complaining much. It will be less before it is more.

The Appeal of the 12th inst. says: The decision of the Supreme Court in the new school law, renders all the acts of the State School Board, null and void. Life certificates issued to teachers by that Board are worthless. It is to be hoped that the decision will be a lesson to those who, at each session of the Legislature, put in sixty days tampering with educational matters.

The Appeal is evidently ill advised as to the action of the Supreme Court, and to the scope of the decision made, which only effects section 2 of an Act which among other things provided for the election of school trustees for three and five years on the second Saturday of May, which section was pronounced unconstitutional. No question has arisen or been presented to the Court that involves the power and duties of the State Board of Education. The Act defining these is separate and distant from the one included in the section which has been pronounced unconstitutional. Teachers holding life diplomas, educational diplomas, need not be alarmed as to their validity. The Appeal is a little too previous in its conclusions and comments.

VIEWS OF CONGRESSMEN.

Answers Given to Four Important Questions.

The Louisville Courier-Journal publishes letters from 160 members of Congress, fifty-nine Democrats and ninety-one Republicans. These letters are in response to four questions sent out by O. O. Stealey, Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal as follows: First—would you favor an amendment to the rules of the house providing that the General Appropriation bills, except the Legislative, Sundry, Civil and Deficiency Bills, shall be prepared and controlled hereafter by the appropriate standing committees on the several branches of the public service? Second—Do you favor any change in the laws governing silver coinage and silver certificates, and if so what moderation would you regard as desirable? Third—to what extent in your opinion, would a revision of the tariff and Internal Revenue laws be desirable at the next session? Fourth—Who is your choice for the caucus nomination for Speaker?

In the Democratic response, 47 unqualifiedly favor an amendment of the rules, 5 give a qualified answer, 4 oppose a change and 3 are non-committal. To the second, or silver question, 4 favor legislation, 47 oppose it and 3 are non-committal. To the third or tariff-reform question, 53 favor tariff agitation 3 oppose and 3 are non-committal. For Speaker, 58 are for Carlisle, 1 for Randall and 1 non-committal.

The whole number of Republican members who responded is 91. For amending the rules of the House, 48 unqualifiedly approve, 12 qualify their answers, 9 oppose and 22 are non-committal. Sixty favor legislation on the silver question, 16 oppose it and 15 are non-committal. Seventy-five oppose tariff legislation, 4 favor it and 12 are non-committal. For Speaker, 30 are for Frank Hiscock, 23 for Reed of Maine, 11 for Governor Long of Massachusetts, and 27 are non-committal.

General Sheridan and Secretary Endicott.

It is current gossip among army officers that Secretary Endicott intends to withhold the annual report of General Sheridan to the War Department from the public for a time. The reason assigned for this action is that the General has severely antagonized in the report the Secretary's action in assuming the right to assign the officers of Sheridan's staff. It is probable that this portion of the report will be withheld from the press, and only an abstract given, which will contain none of the matter embracing General Sheridan's criticism of the head of the Department.

There is a race between the Northern Pacific and the O. R. and N. Company to see which shall first build branches into the rich agricultural districts. This fresh boom in the Northwest has been started by the tremendous harvest up in that country this year. The people of the East will realize before long that there is a West and Northwest in this country, and not a Wall street in the whole section.

The Civil Service Commission Thursday directed the Board of Examiners at New York to certify to the Collector, in case of examination for Weighers, the whole number, at once, of those found eligible for appointment—some thirty persons—placing the disabled soldiers first, in the order of their grades.

Senator Sharon died at 3:40 yesterday afternoon. His was a busy life, and of much good to himself, family and friends. He lived to within a couple of years of three score and ten. His virtues will be treasured by his friends while life shall last. Peace to him in the other world.

One of the lessons of the election in Pennsylvania last week is said to be that the Catholic vote is no longer in one party, but is quite as likely to be Republican as Democratic.

There is a report that Senator Mahone is to locate permanently in the Red River Valley, Dakota.

A big fire is raging at Galveston, Texas.

Changes in the Personnel of the Government Service.

Those who have complained that changes have been made in the personnel of the Government service more slowly than was expected, would probably change their opinion if they should carefully examine the ground, and realize how many changes have really taken place. In the State Department only one of the assistant Secretaries, Governor Porter, is a Democrat; but in the consular and diplomatic service nearly every important position is now in Democratic hands. In the Treasury Department, changes have been more marked. The Secretary, both assistant Secretaries, the Chief Clerk, the Appointment Clerk, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, all the Auditors, the Treasurers and Assistant Treasurers, Chief of the Custom divisions and many of the chief of divisions in the various bureaus, are now Democrats, while in the large number of offices throughout the country, which come under this Department, the changes have been fully as extensive. In the War and Navy Department but few changes have been made, for neither of these Departments are regarded as political, and the work required demands long experience. In the Postoffice and Interior Departments, however, hardly a prominent official remains from the last administration, Major Lockwood, the Chief Clerk of the Interior Department, being the notable exception. It is a matter of considerable speculation among the friends of the administration why the Major continues to occupy that position, for it is known that several capable Democrats would be glad to receive the appointment. Not only in the Department forces in Washington have the changes been effected, but in a large number of other offices, Indian agents, general land agents, pension agents and Postmasters, which come under the control of these two Departments, the same extensive system of removals has been adopted. The Attorney-General has also made a clean sweep in his Department of the prominent officials, and it may be set down as a fact that when Congress shall meet the members will be satisfied that good Democratic work, so far as making the personnel of the Government service conform to the dominant political faith is concerned, has been done during the vacation. All this has not by any means been the work of the President, but the various Secretaries have themselves attended to the so-called purging of their own Department of the Republicans and substituting Democrats in their places.

Dr. Newman on General Grant.

Rev. Dr. John P. Newman lectured in Baltimore Thursday night on the "Life and services of General Grant." He spoke in the highest terms of the patriotism and philanthropy of General Grant, and defended him from the charge of being a blockhead at college. He stood No. 21 in his class, but his average was reduced by demerits given because of carelessness in the polish of his shoes and burnishing of his buttons. In comparing Grant to McClellan, the reverend lecturer said that if he had a city to capture he would select a Grant, but if he had one to defend a McClellan would be chosen. Henry Ward Beecher was unmercifully scored for making the assertion that after General Grant's return from Europe he abandoned himself to wild speculations.

HAN' DOWN ANOTHER PULLET.—The men who are in search of office have as much regard for Civil Service reform as the two darkies who were stealing chickens had for the laws of property.

"Ain't it wicked to rob dis here roost Jim?"

"Dat's a great moral question. We ain't got time ter argue it now. Han' down de nex' pullet."—Texas Sittings.

Have You Paid Your Taxes?

Taxpayers should bear in mind that the new law requires action to be commenced against all persons who have not paid their taxes on or before Monday, November 16th. It is economy to save cost by prompt payments.

A Card of Thanks.

The ladies of the Congregational Society desire to express their sincere and hearty thanks to the editors of the JOURNAL and Gazette for their many courtesies extended to them in aid of their Paper Festival, and through the columns of their respective papers they further express their high appreciation of the very cordial and kindly assistance rendered by those who, outside of the Society, took part in the musical and literary entertainment and at the booths and tables, which contributed so much to make the festival a success, and they gratefully acknowledge the generous patronage that the entire entertainment received from the public.

Jail Delivery at Dayton.

On Tuesday evening two prisoners effected their escape from the County Jail at Dayton. They are Smith, the horse thief, and Swart, the incendiary, who came near escaping about three weeks ago by making a hole through the floor overhead into the Court-room, but were detected in time. On this occasion they dug out under the foundation of the building. They hung their shackles on the outer wall and departed for parts unknown. Diligent pursuit thus far fails to bring them back. The jail is rather of an insecure institution. Old jailers have so pronounced it.

Incorporated.

The Pennsylvania Mining Company has filed articles of incorporation in the San Francisco County Clerk's office. The object is to mine in Jackson district, Humboldt county, Nev. The capital stock is $10,000,000. Trustees—A. W. Simon, George A. Scott, D. W. Earl, M. L. Cheney and John F. Cassell.

"No Foreigners Need Apply."

A gentleman from Eureka says that Hon. Thos. Wren is pronounced in his opposition to the California opinion that Nevada Republicans must accept, for Senator the man whom San Francisco shall select.

We have received from George Stinson & Co., of Portland, Maine, the well-known Art Publishers, a magnificent, full length, steel engraving of General Grant. It is after Anderson's celebrated photograph, which was made while the general was still in full vigor, and represents him in his sturdy, manly strength, as the people wish to remember him. It is, undoubtedly, the best portrait ever made of the general.

Messrs. Stinson & Co. are in need of agents for several important, popular, new publications, and offer inducements that should be heeded by those in need of profitable work; those who write to them will receive, free, full particulars.

A Noble Appeal to the "Boys Who Wore the Gray."

The Evening News, of Louisville, Ky., contains the following novel editorial proposition: "Seeing that people for whom he fought have virtually refused to erect a monument to the memory of Grant, suppose the South, against whom he fought only to be a friend and protect them in the hour of her secret needs, put her hand in her purse and contribute money to build a pile to the memory of the hero whose bosom contained a heart that felt for her woes. The Times will freely contribute to such fund. Let's hear from the boys who wore the gray, and if the thing is feasible then let's take steps to set it properly on foot. What say you, Johnny Rebs?"

LEAVES US.—Rev. Father Nulty takes his departure this evening for Nevada City, California, having been appointed by Rev. Bishop Manogue to take charge of the Catholic parish at that place. Rev. Father Meagher, heretofore in charge, having been assigned elsewhere. Father Nulty has been a long-time resident of the Comstock, highly esteemed by all for his many good qualities of mind and heart, and his army of good and true friends in this community will be sincerely sorry to part with him. All will join in wishing him health, happiness and prosperity wherever he may go.—Enterprise, 12th.

A White Pine correspondent of the Reno JOURNAL wants some one to represent us at Washington "who is not ashamed to live in Nevada." We're his man. We have never blushed for living in Nevada, but have had to rustle like Sheol sometimes to do it.—Times-Review.

THE CARSON MINT.

The Walker Lake Bulletin sensibly remarks:

The reason given by Mint Director Kimball for closing the Carson Mint appears rather weak, in view of the late developments all over the State of Nevada, and in this county particularly. In addition to Nevada revivals South-eastern California is renewing its shipments of bullion, and the single district of Sweetwater promises to send gold and silver out to the world in a large and increasing stream. The gold districts around Hawthorne are but beginning to send out bullion, but when the mines are opened and mills are built they will supply enough precious metal to keep a Mint running. Bodie is taking another start and everywhere the indications are that there will be more need for a Mint than ever before.

Prospecting for Positions in the White House.

The return of Congressman Morrison, of Illinois, to Washington is said to be due in part to a desire to watch combinations which may be made with respect to the organization of the next House. Mr. Morrison very naturally wishes to be once more Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means. It is expected that he will be, but there will be considerable opposition, and it is, perhaps, because of this threatened opposition that Mr. Morrison, as an experienced politician, wants to be on the ground. The opposition comes, of course, primarily from the protectionists, but there are other elements within the party hostile to Mr. Morrison for reasons which have no relation to the tariff. The opposition, however, has not taken any definite shape, and the assumption is that he will be able again to secure the coveted position of one of the leaders of the House.

Mr. Randall, who was recently in Washington, said very frankly to all inquiries that he would not be a candidate for Speaker. He added: "I prefer my place on the floor." His place on the floor has been that of a very efficient Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, and it is very evident that he expects to secure this position. There are some ambitious men who are not willing to submit to the old slate in all its details, but it may be doubted if they can command influence enough to induce Mr. Carlisle to make a new program. Mr. Carlisle, however, occupies an exceptional position. Men who have been many years in Congress fail to recall the time when a Speaker was elected without a contest. Mr. Carlisle in the last Congress was under very great obligations to Mr. Morrison for his election, as Mr. Morrison was his skilled and successful campaign manager. But Mr. Carlisle in the Forty-ninth Congress, from present indications, will owe his success entirely to the reputation which he gained as an efficient and impartial Speaker.

If ex-Senator Sharon dies the chances are that ex-Senator Stewart will not be in the Senatorial fight in Nevada.—Reno Gazette. We had understood that Mackay instead of Sharon was to furnish the amalgam for Stewart's fight.—Times-Review.
